

Curriculum Vitae

Holger Gutschmidt studied Protestant Theology, Egyptology, History of Sciences, and Philosophy in Goettingen, Heidelberg, Turin (Italy), and at the Protestant Ecclesiastical University of Neuendettelsau (“Augustana-Hochschule”) until 1998. 1990/91 Civilian Service. 1998 MA in Egyptology. 2003 DrPhil in Philosophy (supervisor Prof Konrad Cramer). 2013 Postdoctoral qualification (“Habilitation”) in Philosophy. Since then “Privatdozent” at the University of Goettingen.

He gave lectures at several German universities (Goettingen, Jena, Halle), was visiting professor at the Czech Academy of Sciences in Prague (2011) and research fellow of the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation in Taiwan (2017). He currently holds a position as Associate Professor (“Jan Evangelista Purkyně Fellow”) at the Czech Academy of Sciences (Institute of Philosophy) in Prague.

He published Vernunft Einsicht und Glaube (“Reason and Faith”) on the early philosophy of G. W. F. Hegel (Göttingen: Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht 2007), and Objektive Ideen (“Objective Ideas”) on the Cartesian concepts of idea and reasoning in 17th century philosophy (Tübingen: Mohr Siebeck 2014). He is co-editor of Substantia – Sic et Non (Frankfurt am Main: Ontos 2008), a collection of essays in German, English, and French on the history of the concept of “substance”. He currently is writing a book on the development of Hegel’s logic of concept in his Jena period and is also working on the project of a commentary on the correspondence between G. W. Leibniz and A. Arnauld (together with A. Lang-Balestra and J. A. Nicolás).
